BUFFALO SUZUKI STRINGS SUMMER WORKSHOP

Our Suzuki Summer Workshop brings together Suzuki and traditional students, parents and teachers from the Buffalo-Niagara Region to share the joys of an inspirational week of music making.

The Chamber Music Program includes an intensive week of quartet study, master classes and orchestra.

The Suzuki Program is made up of master classes, repertory classes and enrichment classes that broaden the students' musical experience and knowledge. The Introduction to the Suzuki Method Classes allows parents and children to become acquainted with the Suzuki philosophy and methods while sharing in a wide variety of age appropriate musical activities.

INTRODUCTION TO THE SUZUKI METHOD

Ages 3 to 6

9:00 – 10:00

M-T-W-Th-F Classes for Children & Parents

(No instruments will be used for this class)

10:00 – 11:00

M-T-W-Th-F Enrichment Class for Children &
Parent Class/Observation

This two hour, five day program features a one hour parent/child "hands on" introduction/ readiness session which introduces the Suzuki method through a wide variety of musical experiences and a one hour Enrichment class for students as parents attend "parent only" classes and observe the program in action. (Each child must be accompanied by at least one parent.)

Sample topics for Parent Classes

- * How can children so young learn to play an instrument?
- * How does the Suzuki Method differ from traditional music lessons?
- * Will this method fit our lifestyle?
- * Will my child learn to read music?
- * How does learning through the Suzuki Method help to make my child more successful in all areas of his/her life?
